FALL SOWN LAWNS ARE BEST

When planting Bulbs and doing other garden work this Fall, don't overlook the lawn which may have suffered during the Summer. There's no better time to sow Perry's Franklin Park Lawn Seed if you want to re-seed, or merely patch where Crab Grass or other weeds may be taken out. It will grow quickly under the influence of warm soil, and rains that usually are frequent. Seeding may be wisely done any time up to mid-October. On new areas figure 1 lb. to each 300 sq. ft.
